

MASTER OF TRI-SECTOR COLLABORATION

Purpose	The volatile and uncertain world of the 21 st century creates huge challenges and equally enormous opportunities that are compelling businesses, governments and civil society organisations to work together far more closely than before. A new breed of social “intrapreneurs” is emerging to shape new visions of what existing organisations can accomplish. This unique programme trains and connects these emerging leaders from all three sectors.
What does the MTSC do?	The Master of Tri-Sector Collaboration (MTSC) provides emerging leaders from businesses, governments and civil society organisations with the skills and knowledge to become intrapreneurs creating effective solutions to the world’s big problems.
How does the MTSC help organisations?	Employees contribute to their home organisations by having: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to former classmates, guest speakers and lecturers, who are also fellow tri-sectoral professionals in Singapore, ASEAN and around the world. • Skills to both understand and operationalise long-term transformative visions from their leaders. • A deep understanding of emerging trends and the ability to adapt to and manage risks and pressures from an evolving economic environment (e.g. regulatory pressures from non-financial sources)
How does the MTSC contribute to society?	The MTSC programme: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creates a pipeline of emerging leaders comfortable with speaking the languages of all three sectors. • Provides an alternative view of 21st century capitalism. • Emphasises the increasingly inter-woven roles of businesses, governments and civil society organisations. • Introduces organisations to cutting edge activities that redefine conventional views of sustainability and corporate responsibility.
Student profiles	Those at the manager to director levels working in the following areas:
	Public Sector Policy planning, futures thinking, business regulation, governmental strategy	Private Sector Strategy, operations, governmental affairs, public relations, corporate social responsibility, corporate citizenship. Entrepreneur.	Civil Society International or local non-profit organisations with environmental or social focus, trade association, chamber of commerce. Social entrepreneur.
Unique programme features	Visiting expertise from world-renowned institutions: Brookings Institution, Stanford University, Johns Hopkins University, Oxford University, Tsinghua University. Modular course delivery: One- to two-week intensive modules delivered in 11 weeks of class time over 18 months, starting every January.
Cost	Application fee: S$100 Registration fee: S$400 / S$500 (Singaporeans and permanent residents / international students) Tuition fee: S$38,000 (S$40,660 after taxes). Upon acceptance, a deposit of S$2,000 is required, with the remaining fees payable in four instalments. Flights, accommodation and personal expenses are not included.
More information	Davina Loh (Ms)	Programme Manager, Master of Tri-Sector Collaboration SMU School of Social Sciences, Level 4, 90 Stamford Road, Singapore 178903 ☎ www.smu.edu.sg/mtsc ✉ davinaloh@smu.edu.sg ☎ +65 6808 5336	